Regent Theatre, Piccadilly, Stoke on Trent

JENNIFER ELLISON and JONATHAN WILKES get castaway to Stoke-on-Trent's Regent Theatre this Christmas as they star in a brand new pantomime title for the 2010/2011 season, ROBINSON CRUSOE AND THE CARIBBEAN PIRATES.

Jonathan Wilkes – The Regent's very own panto superstar is back once more for what's guaranteed to be another stunning pantomime hit. Jonathan has become the Panto King in Stoke-on-Trent and is a firm favourite with local audiences. Joining him is the multi-talented star of screen and stage, Jennifer Ellison as Polly. Liverpool born Jennifer is best known for her role as Emily Shadwick in Channel 4 soap Brookside. She has also appeared on Hell's Kitchen (ITV), court room reality show The Verdict (BBC), celebrity challenge show With A Little Help From My Friends (ITV), Liverpool Nativity (BBC THREE) and starred as a judge on US reality based show Dirty Dancing – The Time of Your Life (Living TV). In film; Jennifer made her movie debut in the 2004 film version of The Phantom of the Opera.

Also joining the cast is Arthur Bostrom, famed for his role as Officer Crabtree in the long running BBC sitcom 'Allo 'Allo! Arthur will be playing the role of Dame Dolly Dumpling.

They will all be joined by the winner of Stoke's Top Talent 2010 – Sam Bloor. 14 year old Sam from Chesterton wowed the judges at this year's regional talent contest with his storming rendition of Don't Stop Believin'. Sam will be starring as Robin the Cabin Boy.

Robinson Crusoe and the Caribbean Pirates is produced by First Family Entertainment (FFE).
