

Steel Pan Fusion

Album launch - Melting Pot

Steel Pan Fusion is a newly formed steelpan combo.

The group takes its names and structure from a monthly jam session held at Charlie Wright's International Bar throughout 2014, aptly titled Steel Pan Fusion.

The band members are as follows:

- Sam Blue Agard on drums
- Liam Joseph on bass
- Phillip Harper on congas and cowbells
- Andre Louis and Joe McGrail on keyboards
- Adriano Rossetti-Bonell on saxophone and flute
- David Vine and Wade Austin on steelpan

This exciting mixture of instrumentalists forms a cultural ensemble that encapsulates the fusion of steelpan, jazz and world music into a unique 'Melting Pot'.

The official launch of Steel Pan Fusion and their album, Melting Pot, is on 13 November 2016 at the Jazz Cafe, Camden, London. It promises to be a night to remember.
